20. Financing of terrorist acts-(1) Every person who, by any means, directly or indirectly, knowingly or without due inquiry, provides or collects funds or proceeds with the intention that such funds or proceeds be used, or in the knowledge that such funds or proceeds are to be used, in full or in part, in order -

- (a) To carry out an act which constitutes an offence under this Act, or
- (b) To carry out any other act intended to cause death or bodily injury to any person not taking an active part in the hostilities of armed conflict, where the purpose of such act, by its nature or context, is intended to intimidate a population, or to compel a State or Government or an International Organization to do or to abstain from doing an act;

is guilty of an offence.

(2) Every person who commits an offence under this section is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years.

21. Seizure of funds intended or used to finance a terrorist act – Notwithstanding any other Act or law-(1) Where it is found by a Court that any funds or proceeds have been provided or collected for the purpose of committing an offence under this Act, the Court shall order that such funds or proceeds be forfeited to the Independent State of Samoa.

(2) Upon application by the Attorney General a Court may order that any funds or proceeds suspected on reasonable grounds of being funds or proceeds subject to section 20 or subsection (1) of this section be frozen pending a determination by the Court as to whether such funds or proceeds have been provided or collected for the purpose of committing an offence under this Act.

(3) Where a Court has made an order under this section any person or juridical person holding or having control of any funds or proceeds subject to this section shall comply with any order of the Court.

(4) Any person or juridical person who knowingly fails to comply with a Court Order made under this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 1000 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or to both a fine and imprisonment.

(5) Where a person or juridical person knowingly fails to comply with a Court Order made under this section and as a result funds or proceeds subject to this section are not frozen or forfeited to the Independent State of Samoa, as the case may be, the Court, in addition to imposing a penalty or penalties under subsection (4), may order that any property, real or personal, up to the value of the funds or proceeds subject to this section owned by such person or juridical person be forfeited to the Independent State of Samoa.

(6) Where any funds or proceeds subject to this section are held or controlled by a juridical person, any manager, company director or person howsoever called who has authority over such funds or proceeds shall also be personally liable under this section for any act or failure to act by the juridical person unless the person can establish to the satisfaction of a Court that the person had no knowledge and no duty of inquiry concerning such funds or proceeds.

(7) Any order, prosecution, forfeiture or penalty imposed upon any person under subsection (6) shall not excuse any juridical person from any order, prosecution, forfeiture or penalty which may be imposed under this section.

(8) No claim may be made in respect of any interest which accrues on any funds frozen by or forfeit to the Independent State of Samoa pursuant to a Court Order under this section.

22. Assisting the financing of terrorist acts – Notwithstanding any other Act or law-(1) Every person who knowingly or with due inquiry assists in any way the provision of or collection of funds or proceeds where such funds or proceeds are used or are to be used to carry out an act which constitutes an offence under this Act is guilty of an offence.

(3) Any person or juridical person who commits an offence under this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding 1000 penalty units or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or to both a fine and imprisonment.

(4) Where a juridical person is found guilty of an offence under this section any manager, company director or person howsoever called who has authority over any funds or proceeds subject to this section shall also be personally liable under this section for any act or failure to act by the juridical person unless the person can establish to the satisfaction of a Court that the person had no knowledge and no duty of inquiry concerning such funds or proceeds.

PART VIII ARREST AND EXTRADITION OF SUSPECTED FOREIGN TERRORISTS

23. Application of this Part – Part VIII of this Act shall apply notwithstanding the provisions of the Extradition Act 1974 or any other Act or law.

24. Arrest and extradition of suspected foreign terrorists-(1) Where a police officer suspects on reasonable grounds -

- (a) That a foreign national is wanted by a Commonwealth or Foreign Country to face a charge or charges in that country concerning a terrorist act, or
  - (b) That a foreign national is unlawfully at large after conviction for committing a terrorist act,
- the police officer, using reasonable force, may arrest the person and without undue delay bring the person before the Supreme Court.

(2) For the purposes of this Part a terrorist act shall include any offence provided for under this Act or an offence determined by the Supreme Court to be equivalent to any offence provided for under this Act.

(3) Where the Supreme Court is satisfied that -

- (a) The provisions of section 6 of the Extradition Act 1974 do not apply, and
  - (b) There is reasonable evidence available to the Court that the person should face trial for committing a terrorist act or is unlawfully at large after conviction for committing a terrorist act,
- the Court shall order that the person remain in custody and be returned to the Commonwealth or Foreign Country wishing to put the person on trial for committing a terrorist act or be returned to the Commonwealth or Foreign Country wishing to regain the custody of the person following the persons's conviction for committing a terrorist act, as the case may be.

PART IX EXTRA-TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION OF SUPREME COURT

25. Extra – territorial jurisdiction – Notwithstanding any other Act or law the Supreme Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any matter under this Act irrespective of whether any act or event takes place inside or outside of Samoa.
